A Weekend Retreat

Where We've Been to Where We're Going - A Journey of Faith

This place of calling, our vocation, is never stagnant. Rather, God is always calling us to new things, new places, new ways of being. In our time together we will reflect on where God has taken us in the past and where God might be leading us now. Through conversation, spiritual practices and personal reflection, we will explore our own deep gladness as well as the world's deep hunger, seeking God's wisdom for the next leg of our journey.

"The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet."

— Frederick Buechner

With an extensive background in administration and leadership in academic and faith communities, Ivy has over 25 years of experience in teaching, leading and inspiring groups and individuals. She is a certified practitioner in Bowen Family Systems and a qualified facilitator of The Circle Way, leading workshops and retreats that encourage story-telling and personal growth.

Ivy received her M.Div. from The Vancouver School of Theology and is an ordained minister in the United Church of Canada. She currently serves her denomination as a Conference Minister in Kamloops/Okanagan, British Columbia, where she works with Ministry Personnel and Congregations to help them develop healthy, vibrant communities of faith. She enjoys photography and recently returned from a trip to Africa where she was a guest of the Anglican Diocese of Kagera in Tanzania.
